

25% of people who are homeless in the United States have a severe mental illness.

At some point, each of these individuals was homeless. Through the integration with Spectrum of Supportive Services, Recovery Resources now offers supportive housing, employment services, and vocational training for individuals with a mental illness and/or addiction diagnosis. Would you like to help others have a place to call home? WE HAVE A FUND FOR THAT!

home; WE HAVE A FUND FOR THAT!
you like to help others have a place to call illness and/or addiction diagnosis. Would